FINE FUR CAPES—GEO. M. SNOOK & CO.

SPECIAL! YOUR CHANCE!!!!

FINE Fur Capes

Are going to be sold by us at prices usually charged for COMMON ones!

One of the best Furriers in New York City shipped us yesterday about twenty-five EXTRA CHOICE Electric Seal, Wool Seal and Astrakhan Fur Capes at prices which make it possible to do just as we say.

In search of the VERY BEST, you cannot afford to miss this chance, as this is surely the Fur Cape opportunity of the season.

SEVERAL....

Important sales are now in progress here—one or all of them might interest you. Take for instance Muslin and Gambia Underwear. Never had such a grand line as we now show, and prices for first-class goods were never lower. A delayed shipment of four additional cases added this week. Prices in plain figures. Hundreds of yards of Gambia Embroidery from 55c to 135c yard. "Everybody buys 'em."

Wraps, Blankets, Fur Rugs, Woolen Underwear,

And other Winter Goods, reduced to prices that will tempt you to buy for next winter.

INDIA SILKS

Are moving out fast at half of their worth. Still a number of choice things left, but you must come at once to avoid possible disappointment.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

The Grand this evening—"McDoodle and Fiddle."

Hundreds of skaters thronged the back river ice yesterday and last night.
 There will be a dance to-night at the Beabout hall, Wood street, East End, given by the club.

The Belmont mill has been off in all departments since New Year's, but is expected to go on soon.

The ferry boat, Charon, has resumed its trips between Benwood and Bellaire.
 Teams as well as pedestrians are being carried.

Great crowds of skaters throng the ice on the back river dam these days. The skating was exceedingly fine yesterday and last night.

Charles and Peter Putnam, the Sixteenth street blacksmiths, left yesterday for California, where they expect to reside in the future.

Candidates for the Bridgeport mayoralty at next election are trimming their sails for the spring breeze. Besides the present incumbent, who will be a candidate for re-election, "there are others."

Bandi Johnson was given sixty days in police court yesterday morning and Tom Coffee the same for their racket at Ada Foster's, the night before. Frank May got thirty days. Two prisoners paid out.

The two "Frog in the Throat" displays in the windows of Stewart's pharmacy, South Side, still attract attention. Those who have seen displays in other cities say Stewart's should take first and second prizes.

The new temple of the Knights of Pythias, corner of Twenty-second and Chapline streets, South Side, is nearing completion. The brick work was completed yesterday. It will not be ready for occupancy, however, for several months.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Strangers in the City and Wheeling Folks Abroad.

George H. Sparer, of Mannington, West Virginia, is in the city.

Luke Burr, of McKeesport, Pa., is visiting his parents in Benwood.

D. F. Coleman, of Cairo, was among yesterday's arrivals at the McLure.

H. T. Wilson, of Clarksburg, was in the city yesterday. He registered at the McLure.

Fred Neldemeyer, of Boggs' Run, is very ill and fears are expressed that he will not recover.

Charles Ulrich has returned home after an absence of eighteen months in the south and west.

Henry W. Odell and George H. Ahrens of Jamestown, N. Y., well known oil operators, are at the McLure.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Franzheim left yesterday afternoon on the Pennsylvania for New York and other eastern cities.

J. R. Alexander, the well known Woodfield man, was here yesterday. H. L. Smith and W. S. Way, also of Woodfield, were at the McLure.

Dr. Hopkins and Prof. Corbett, of the state agricultural experiment station at Morgantown, were in the city last evening enroute to Wellsburg, where they take part in the meetings of the state agricultural society and the state wool growers' association, to-day and to-morrow.

Fined by Squire Schultze.

In Squire Schultze's court last evening the participants in a Polish scrap were up. Stanislaus Klon was arrested for assault on Michael Kowalski. He was fined $5 for the offense.

An Oil (or Burned)

Last night an old caboose used by the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling railway to store oil in, and standing on a siding in the company's yard at Bridgeport, caught fire in some way as yet unexplained, and was entirely destroyed. It made an unusually bright blaze, which lasted a long time and attracted a large crowd.

In the Circuit Courts.

In Judge Paul's court yesterday in the case of Anna Fox vs. Margaret Glasgow judgment for the plaintiff was entered in the sum of $39, with interest and costs.

In Judge Campbell's court in the case of Frank Goodwin and wife vs. Louis Quana, for damages alleged to have been done by dogs belonging to Quana, a verdict was rendered for the defendant.

Probate Business Yesterday.

Yesterday L. S. Good was appointed administrator of the estate of Julius Jacobs, deceased, and gave bond in the sum of $1,200, with Henry Jacobs as surety.

James McGlinley was appointed administrator of the estate of James S.
 Muldon, deceased, and gave bond in $1,000, with Andrew McGlinley as surety.

Transfers Admitted to Record.

Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record transfers of real estate as follows:

January 15 by Edward C. Glover and wife to Herbert H. Stoeck, for $200, 30 feet of lot 8 in subdivision B at Edg-ington, as laid out by W. V. Hoge.
 July 1 by H. and A. J. Seamon to C. R.
 Miner, for $65, burial lot 1112 in the Peninsular cemetery.

The Junction Iron Company.

The stockholders of the Junction Iron and Steel Company, at Mingo, elected directors as follows yesterday:
 H. K. List, James W. Paxton, David Gutman, J. J. Holloway, M. J. Urquhart, A. F. List, George A. Dean.
 Owing to the illness of President Prince he declined re-election, and M.
 J. Urquhart was elected president and general manager, and George A. Dean secretary and general superintendent.

DIED SUDDENLY.

W. F. Peterson, a Prominent Old Citizen, Passes Away.

FOUND DEAD IN BED YESTERDAY.

Was Apparently in His Ordinary Health When He Retired the Night Before—A Sketch of His Life, All of which was Spent in Wheeling—A Good Citizen, Active in Business and Public Affairs, and His Place will be Hard to Fill—Sad Circumstances Surrounding His Sudden Death.

Mr. William F. Peterson died at the home of his brother, B. W. Peterson, at Wooddale, east of the city, some time Wednesday night. He was apparently in as good health as ever Wednesday, and was in town as usual attending to business. He asked to be called early yesterday morning, and when an effort was made to arouse him and he did not respond, his room was entered and he was found dead in bed.

Mr. Walker Peterson, his brother, with whom he had lived for several years at Wooddale, had left for New York the evening before. Mrs. B. W.
 Peterson was also absent from home, so that the shockingly sudden death seemed more than usually sad.

Mr. Peterson was about seventy years old, but was very hale for his age. He had some trouble of an asthmatic character at times, and it is supposed that a fit of coughing may have superinduced the trouble which caused his death.

Last evening Dr. Belleville, assisted by Dr. Baird and Dr. Dickey, went out to the residence and held an autopsy.
 They found no organic trouble of a character to cause death, and decided that he died from heart failure caused by the effects of the trouble referred to.

Mr. Peterson had been an active and useful citizen of Wheeling for many years. He was single, and lived with his brother's family since the death of their mother some time ago. His father, William Fairfield Peterson, arrived here from Vermont almost at the beginning of the century, and the family has been prominent in business and in the community generally ever since.

Mr. F. Peterson, the son, was his father's successor in the insurance business, and for years conducted the most important general insurance agency in West Virginia, part of the time his brother being his partner. The firm made a decided success of the agency and was widely known as reputable and enterprising.

In 1885 Mr. Peterson left the insurance business and went into the iron roofing business with Mr. F. G. Caldwell. The firm of Caldwell & Peterson soon acquired national fame. Later

Mr. B. W. Peterson also became interested in it and the concern was incorporated under the name of the Fairfield & Peterson Insurance Company. The importance of its plant among the prosperous industries of Wheeling is well known. Mr. Peterson was active in the management of its affairs until a little over a year ago, when he and his brother sold out, and he retired from business.

He had served acceptably as a member of the board of county commissioners and was for several terms a member of the city council, where his intelligence and fidelity to duty made him a peculiarly valuable member. He was a consistent and ardent Republican always, a leader in the organization and conduct of the Lincoln club, and always ready to assist to the extent of his ability anything that he thought would further the interests of the community, his party or mankind. He was an able man than the general public gave him credit for being, for he never, especially in his later years, sought prominence in any line. He was one of those to whom honor comes uncourted, but those who knew him well held his judgment in high esteem.

He was a member of St. Matthew's Episcopal church, and only recently he and his brother placed a memorial window there in honor of their parents.

He was a Mason, also, but his disposition was very domestic, and he was never happier than when with the family circle or with his relatives, and to them the blow of his unexpected death in their absence comes with cruel force.

Mr. Peterson did not look as old as he was, and until very recently was as hale as most men of twenty years younger. He was a genial, whole-souled man, best liked by those who knew him best, and the place he has filled in his time will long remain vacant.

 Yesterday telegrams were sent out to every point in the east at which it was thought probable that Mr. Peterson's brother might be, but up to a late hour last night he had not been reached. The funeral arrangements cannot be made until he returns.

Music Sunday Evening.

The programme of the bi-weekly rehearsal of the Opera House orchestra, at the Arion hall Sunday evening, has been issued, and a feature is the announcement of the promenade concert

 $2.00 Underwear at $1.50.
 $2.25 Underwear at $1.68 3-4.
 $2.50 Underwear at $1.87 1-2.

There isn't such a variety of Underwear in any other store in Wheeling, and there never has been such a broad sweeping cut as this, but we do not want to be caught in the spring thaw with too much stock on hand. So we will lose when the losing will benefit you.

A FEW DAYS LONGER of our great Suit and Overcoat Sale. Suits and Overcoats that were $22, $20, $18 and $15, at $12.48. Suits and Overcoats that were $12, $11 and $10, at $8.48. These are Suits and Overcoats that you would have to pay the tailor more than double for their equals. Certainly extremes are meeting in this great event—the best value for the least money. There is nothing to compare with it—because it takes better stock than other houses—takes more courage than they have got—takes us and our pushing policy to father such a sacrifice.

Need we say your money back for the slightest cause?
 Guess you know by this time that we mean that.
